Letter No: 67 dt 3.11.31 from the Comptr forwarding the report of the District Treasury officer in regard to the disposal of the vacant pension of Rs 18-12-0, drawn by the late Annamalaimal. — 11

Sub: Affair examining the claims put forward by the claimants, the District Treasury officer recommend Serial No.

12	Petition dt 12.11.31 from Sri Nanjammanni praying that the pension of her mother (deceased) may be granted to her son Venkatarajaiya -

Subd: The pension in question stood in the name of Annasawmy Naik & on his death it was ~~transferred~~ ordered to be continued to his minor son Ramaswamy Naik represented by his mother and guardian ~~Ammaiyamma~~ Ammannamma (G.O. P.P no 164-5 dt 11.2.01) Ramaswamy Naik also having died unmarried, the pension was ordered to be continued to his mother. (G.O. no. Ft 5683-4/Sta 272-10-4 dt 16.5.11). The amount of pension is Rs 18.15-9.

8 It is now reported that Ammanamma died on 31st July 1930 & ~~petitions~~ claims from Akkammani & Narasimhaswami Naik Nanjammani (daughters of the deceased) have been received claiming the pension.

9 Before the State Treasury officer, 6 persons put forward their claims & this officer having considered the claims of Each recommends that the pension in question may be transferred to the name of Akkammani one of the daughters of the deceased.

10 The deceased has left 3 daughters — Nanjammani, Akkammani & Devajammani: It is seen that the first has two ~~daughters~~ sons & the third a daughter. The second has also 3 sons - ~~Photographs is not available as to whether they are~~ ~~has~~ approaches -

11 Nanjammani, the first daughter, states that her son (Venkatarajaiya) was adopted by Ramaswamy Naik (son of the deceased) who predeceased his mother & has performed the ceremonies of her grand parents. But Ammannamma's petition for adopting her grandson (daughter's son) male so far back as 1913 was rejected. (Vide n. Ft 6946/Sta 59-12-6 dy 29.5.18). But Ramaswamy Naik is reported to have died on 17th Aug 1910 & if he adopted any body why the mother applied for adopting her grandson is not clear. Evidently the claim of Nanjammani on behalf of her son is spurious.

2) The second daughter's (AKKammani) claim is supported by the State Huzur Dy: Officer notwithstanding the claims of the other two daughters. According to Hindu Law, it would appear that the property of the deceased has to go to the daughters when there is no male issue. One other significant point is that she is the wife of Mr. Narasimha Naik (Retired Amildar) who belongs to Manjarabad Pollegar Family. He is already in receipt of a State pension.

3) In the case of Ranjamma Nagathi of the Chitaldrug Pollegar family who was enjoying a pension of Rs 31-12-5 after the death of her husband, one Ramappa Naik (brother of the husband) claimed it on her death, but Govt. ordered that the pension should lapse on the ground that he was already enjoying a pension. Besides the family of AKKammani in due course will be enjoying two pensions.

Sta 111-30-9

4) Mr M.P. Narasimha Naik who has claimed the vacant pension does not say how he is entitled to it. He claims it only on the ground that he is a near relative.

5) The third daughter Devajammani has not professed her claim either to Govt or to the State Huzur Dy Offi

22 The S. H. Jry. office has rejected the claims of Claimants 1 & 4 & 6 and has recommended the continuance of the vacant pension to C. S. Ankammani, one of the daughters of the deceased. Vide paras 8 & 9 of his report.

There are two objections to this recommendation.

Firstly, under the Hindu law, succession after the death of the mother, who inherited from her son, should be traced to the last

NOTE—Contin. Sheet.

holden in Ramaswamy Naick, and AKKannammal can claim only as his sister.

Secondly she is one of the 3 daughters of the deceased, and cannot exclude the other two - Nanjammal & Devajammal. The last individual has not preferred any claim at all in the case.

Even during the life time of her mother, AKKannammal had applied for the transfer of the pension drawn by her mother Ramaswami Naicker but unsuccessfully.

She has no preferential claim to the exclusion of others similarly related to the deceased and the last male holder. The recommendation of the S.H.O. has to be rejected.

The position briefly is thus -

Success in being traced to the last male holder - Ramaswamy Naick, the claimants fall into 3 groups.

I^st Group. $C_1 - C_6$ - Sisters sons.

II^nd group. C_2, C_3, C_4 - Agnates claiming as reversioners of the deceased.

III^rd group - C_5 - Sister of last male holder & daughter of the deceased, claiming to the exclusion of the other heirs similarly related like herself.

As pointed out in Mr. Nagappa's note (18.4.58) Hon'ble The important consideration in regard to the devolution of pathyam property is not to treat it as heritable property to which some heir of the deceased however distant may be allowed to succeed, but to remember that Govt have full discretion to determine the ~~first~~ method of disposal of these properties, especially 30 If the Strict rules of Hindu law are to apply to this case, succession must be traced to the last male holder, namely, Ramaswamy Naik and not to Annamamma, as has been done by the S. H. J. Officer. Moreover as held in 24 MCCR. 77 (7. B), a sister's son is a preferential heir to a sister. Accordingly the claims of Venkatarajia & the three sons of Akkammani are superior to those of Akkammani herself or her sisters - The sisters' sons take the estate per capita & not per stirpes and consequently in this case, the pension will have to be divided into 4 equal shares, if it is decided to continue the pension to the heirs of R. Naik.

31 As regards the question of allowing the pension to lapse, there appears to be no doubt that these pensions are such that Govt have the power at any time to resume them. Section 5 of the Pensions Act, 1871, which applies to Poligar pensions also, however seems to contemplate the Officer concerned to dispose of claims to pensions "in accordance with such Rules as the Chief Controlling authority may from time to time prescribe in this behalf." It may perhaps be desirable to have definite rules prescribing the conditions under which these pensions lapse to the State.

" IV Narasimhaswami Naik C4 24-1-0

The pension in question stood registered in the name of Annaiyaswami original polleger of Jaiparabad. On his demise the pension was transferred to the name of his minor son Ramaswami Naik, his mother Ammanyamma being the guardian. Subsequently Ramaswami Naik having died, the pension was continued in the name of his mother Ammanyamma who having died on 30-7-30, the question of the devolution of the pension has cropped up. The marginally noted persons have put forth their claims. Venkatarajiah C1 bases his claim on the ground that he is the adopted son of Ramaswami Naik and also the son of Nanjammanni. But we glean from the records that his claim as the adopted son of Ramaswami (who died unmarried) is not tenable. (Vide note)

Doddarajiah C2. is the 2nd claimant whose claims are promdless as no mention is made of him in the records or in any of the genealogical tables available so far traced

Gopalakrishna Swami Naik C 3, the 3rd claimant is already in receipt of a separate pension of Rs 15 3-10-4 and is the surviving head of the Senior branch of the Manjarabad Polleyar family.

Narasimha Naik C 4, the fourth claimant belongs to a collateral line and enjoys a pension of Rs ~~39-14-0~~ 24-10-0.

AK Kammani C 5. The next claimant is the wife of late Narasimha Naik brother of C 3. ~~and is drawing~~ who shares the pension drawn in the name of Mr Gopalakrishnaswami Naik C 3

Sir,

I have the honor to submit the following report in the matter of the succession to the Pollegar Pension of Rs.18-15-9 per mensem rendered vacant by the demise of the last holder Ammannamma at Mudigere on 31st July 1930.

2. The facts of the case are briefly as follows:-

The stipend in question is a portion of the Manjarabad Pollegar Political Pension and originally stood registered in the name of Annasawmy Naik, the husband of the deceased last holder Ammannamma. On his death on 28th November 1900 it was transferred by G.O.No.P.P 464 dated 11th February 1901 to the name of his minor son Ramaswami Naik, his mother Ammannamma long appointed as a guardian. Ramaswamy Naik having died unmarried 17th August 1910, leaving his mother Ammannamma and other more distant relations surviving him, the Government in their order No.Fl.5683-4/S&A 272-10-2, dated 16th May 1911 were pleased to sanction the continuance of the pension in the name of the deceased's mother Ammannamma, the last holder She also having died on 31st July 1930, the devolution of the pension has now got to be settled.

3. Six persons have put forward their claims to the vacan pension viz., (1) H. V. Venkatarajaiah
(2) K. P. Doddarajaiah
(3) M. Goplakrishnaswami Naik
(4) M. P. Narasimhaswami Naik
(5) Akkammanni
(6) M. N. Rajagopal Naik, M.N Boraswamy, M.N.Satyanarayanaswami sons of No.(v).

4. The first claimant H. V. Venkatarajiah, bases his claim on the ground that he is the adopted son of Ramaswami Naik the last male holder and also the son of Nanjammanni the eldest daughter of the deceased Ammannamma, and that he has performed the obsequies of the deceased. His claim is supported by Ammanniamma herself in a petition written on 7th April 1930 and addressed to the Khajana Bakshi as well as a document dated 25th July 1930 which purports to be both an "arji" as well as a "will" addressed to the Dewan. The alleged adoption is vehemently denied by the other claimants. It is seen from the records that once before this i.e., in the year 1913, the deceased lady made an attempt to take one Lakshmanarajiah elder brother of Venkatarajiah in adoption (it is not very clear from the records whether it is to herself or to her deceased son Ramaswami Naik) but Government in their endorsement No.Fl.6946/S&A 59-12-6 dated 29th May 1913 informed her that "the proposed adoption is not in accordance with the principles laid down in G.O.No.5187-95/Mis.795 dated 30th September 1902". and therefore declined to give her the required permission. If, as now alleged, Venkatarajiah had been adopted by Ramaswami Naik himself during his life time (he died unmarried on 17th August 1910) it is not clear what need there was for Ammanniamma to apply to Government in 1913, i.e., three years after Ramaswami Naik's death for permission to adopt his elder brother Lakshmanarajiah. Moreover according to Hindu Law the adopted son should be the reflection of a true son that is to say his mother should have been a person on whom his adoptive father could have begotten him. Consequently the adoption of both Lakshmanarajiah and his brother Venkatarajiah could not be valid since their mother Nanjammanni happens to be the sister of Ramaswami Naik. In these circumstances, I have no hesitation in holding that Venkatarajiah's claim is spurious and must accordingly be rejected.

5. Doddarajiah bases his claim on the ground that his father's father Komaraswamy and the deceased's husband Anneyaswamy were uterine brothers. Not only is the alleged relationship not proved, proved, but no mention is made of either the claimant Doddarajiah or his father Komaraswamy in any of the records or any of the geneological tables submitted by any of the parties. If it were true that there was such a close relation as a nephew then he should have advanced his claims on the death of Ramaswami Naik so far back as 17th August 1910 and he would certainly have been better entitled to succeed him than his mother the deceased Ammanniamma. But it is observed from the Government Order of 16th May 1911 referred to at para 2 supra, that the survivors of Ramaswami Naik being "more distant relations" the pension was continued in the name of the "mother". This would certainly not have been done if as alleged a nearer heir was available in the person of a nephew or nephew-in-law as Doddarajiah alleges himself to be. Consequently his claim also cannot be admitted.

6. Mr. Gopalakrishnaswami Naik claims the vacant pension on his own behalf as well as his two younger brothers Mr. Narasimha Naik (husband of Akkammanni claimant No.V) and Venkataramanaswamy Naik as the surviving head of the senior branch of the Manjarabad Pollegar family and therefore reversionary heir thereof. But the brothers belong to a dividend branch, and are already in receipt of a separate pension. No question of reversion arises, as long as there are lineal descendants and nearer heirs entitled to succeed as in this case. Their claims also will have therefore to be rejected.

7. The claims of the fourth applicant M. P. Narasimhaswami Naik and his brother and sister-in-law which are more or less based on similar grounds, have also to be rejected for the same reasons as those of No.(iii). His case is even weaker than that of Mr. Gopalakrishnas ami Naik because he is a more distant relation.

8. This leaves only the claims of Akkammanni and her sons, claimants Nos.(v) and (vi) to be considered. The former bases her claim on the ground that she is not only the daughter of the deceased Ammanniamma but also the wife of Mr. Narasimha Naik a member of the senior branch of the family and younger brother of Mr. Gopalakrishnaswami Naik claimant No.(iii) referred to at para 6 supra. Although the latter ground does not, as she supposes, give her a better right, the former is certainly a very good ground. As between the claims of herself and her sons the daughter is entitled to succeed before the daughter's sons.

9. Thus, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, I recommend that the vacant pension of Rs.18-15-9 now standing in the name of Ammanniamma be transferred to the name of her daughter Akkammanni, with effect from the date of the former's death viz., 31st July 1930.

OFFICE OF THE DEWAN OF MYSORE
Date of Receipt 19 8 30

Respected Sir,

With due deference and humble submission I respectfully beg that your honour will kindly be pleased to take my case into your honour's favourable consideration and grant me graciously the boon I pray for:-

My mother, Ammanyamma who was getting a monthly pension of Rs. 18-15-6 as a member of the Manjarabad Pollegar family, died on 31-7-1930, leaving no male issue.

I beg to state that I am entitled to this pension not merely becasue I am her daughter but also due to the fact that I am married to a direct descendant (Mr. Narasimha Naik) of the said fami

As pensions of deceased individuals generally confined to the members of a particular family, I beg to submit that I have - a preferential claim to the pension which my mother was enjoying owin to my aforesaid connection with the Manjarabad Pollegar family.

In kind consideration of my spperior and double - claim as set forth above I pray that the pension in question may - graciously be granted to me so that it may not go outside the family.

For this act of generosity I shall ever pray for your honour's long life and prosperity.

I remain,

Respected Sir,

Petitioner:- Nanjammanni, Eldest Daughter of late Annayyaswami Naik, Pollegar of Manjarabad.

Most humbly and respectfully sheweth:-

H.Y

In continuation of my petition dated 3-12-1930, I respectfully beg to state the following a few facts to your kind and generous consideration.

1. I am the eldest daughter of late Annayyaswami Naik, original Pollegar of Manjarabad. The said Annayyaswami Naik was in receipt of a Pollegar pension of Rs.18/15/9, per mensem till his death. The said full pension of Rs.18/15/9, which was in the enjoyment of Annayyaswami Naik, was continued to his wife Ammanyamma. The said Ammanyamma, the last pension-holder died on 31-7-1930.

2. The said Annayyaswami Naik, original Pollegar of Manjarabad had three daughters and only one son. The present members of this family are shown in the subjoined table of pedigree.

1. Annayyaswami Naik (died) 2.(Ammanyamma) wife the last pension-holder died on 31-7-1930.

3.	4.	5.	6
Ramaswamy Naik. (son) died on 17-8-1910.	Nanjammanni. daughter. (petitioner)	Akkammanni. daughter.	Devajammanni. daughter.

Lakshmanarajiah (son) 7. 8.Venkatarajaiya (son)

3. The said Ramaswamy Naik (3) having no issues, he duly and legally adopted my son Venkatarajaya (No.8) during his life time according to Hereditory custom and Dharma Sastras. The said Ammanyamma, the last pension-holder has represented all these facts to the Government of Mysore by means of petition on 7th April 1930 and also has submitted her last will and petition to the Government on 25th July 1930, praying that the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore may be pleased to favour the petitioner's son Venkatarajaya (No.8) with their generous protection and continue the full pension of Rs.18-15-9 in his name.

4. I beg to state that my younger sister one Akkammanni (No.5) being persuaded by her husband one Narasimha Naik retired Amildar, who is enjoying a separate Pollegar pension of Rs.153-10-4 of Manjarabad family per mensem from the Government of Mysore. Although she has been presented a Dowry of Rs.1,000/- in the shape of cash and jewellery at the time of her marriage, by her mother Ammanyamma, She has again come for a share in this poor pension of Rs.18/15/9, putting forward her exclusive right to the pension on spurious grounds.

5. I beg to submit that my son Venkatarajaya (No.8) is the direct lineal legitimate descendant, heir, nearest blood-relative and grand-son (Douhithra) of the late Annyaswamy Naik (No.1) and also the adopted son of late Ramaswamy Naik (No.3) and representative of the house of the Pollegar of Manjarabad.

6. I beg to submit that the Government have been pleased to recognise the recent adoption of one Venkataramanaswamy Naik who is the daughter's son (Douhithra) of one Mudduswamy Naik, Pollegar of Rayadrug.

7. According to his binding duty my son Venkatarajaya (No.8) has performed all the ceremonies of my grand-father, my father and my mother who died in Mudigere on 31-7-1930 and this fact is well-known to the Amildar of Mudigere, Kadur District.

8. If the Government desire to recognise only the claims of daughters, I being the eldest daughter (Jestaputri), I am the better claimant and heir than my two younger sisters (No.5 and 6).viz., Akkammanni and Devajammanni.

In conclusion, I humbly and respectfully solicit your honour to kindly consider all the facts of the case and that the full pension of Rs.18/15/9 may be kindly granted to my son Venkatarajaya (No.8) and thus protect this family from its irretrievable ruin.

For which act of kindness and justice, I shall ever pray.

Subject:- Political pension of Annamanamma (deceased) mother of Ramaswamy Naik of Manjarabad Family.
Amount Rs 18-15-0 p. m.

Sir,

I petitioner undersigned hereby begs to state as follows:-

Myself, my brother Rama
- swamy Naik and my late brother Venkatadri naik's widow Kowramanamani are the nearest heirs of the late Annamanamma and are thus entitled to receive in equal portions the sum of Rs 187/5/0 above referred to.

The Genealogical Tree will show our proximity to the deceased Annamanamma.
I understand some of my dayadis and also the so-called adopted son of the late Annamanamma's eldest daughter have made applications in this matter.
I beg to submit that none of my dayadis are entitled to this pension.
Further the taching of adoption of the so-called adopted Son of the late Annamanamma's eldest daughter has not been made known to Government.
The alleged adoption has not taken place.
I also understand that one AKKamanni, second daughter of the late Annamanamma and wife of dayadi Narasimha Swamy Naik has also made applications in this behalf.
Being the wife of a political pensioner now living the above named AKKamanni is not entitled to this pension I therefore request that due consideration be given to the Claims of the Petitioner and the two others named above and orders be passed early directing the payment of this pension equally among myself, my brother Ramaswamy Naik and my late brother Venkatadri Naik's widow Gowramma and as this pension has to be enjoyed by members of the Mangalam family.

investigations into the claims each has come to the conclusion that the claims of nos 1 to 4 & 6 have to be rejected for reasons explained and that who during the lifetime of her mother had applied for the transfer of the pension of her brother Ramaswami naik but without success.

Order

In the absence of lineal heirs in the male line to the last male holder Ramaswami Naick, Govt. direct that the pension enjoyed by his mother Annamma shall lapse to Govt.

22/2/1932

Pensioning officer's report requires to be considered that the pension in question may be registered in the name of Akkammani, one of the daughters of the deceased.

On a close scrutiny it is found that Govt cannot (that Akkammani, the nominee of the S. of T. Officer, has no preferential claim to the pension to the exclusion of others similarly related to the deceased and the last male holder of Govt

Therefore cannot accept the recommendation of the S. H. T. Officer

Govt are inclined to opinion that in view of the absence of (or there have been no) lineal heirs in the male line and as the last holder was a female, there is no reason to continue the pension wholly or partly to anybody however remote of the claimants and direct that it shall lapse to Govt

The Comptroller is requested to issue necessary instruct the S. H. T. Officer to issue necessary endorsements to the several Claimants
